

Liturgy and ecumenism

Participants to the XXXVIth Week of study

Bose, 25-29 August 2008

XXXVI Week of study

Association of Professors of Liturgy

The Italian Association of Professors of Liturgy has devoted its XXXVIth Week of study to the topic of "liturgy and ecumenism."

Bose, 25-29 August 2008

The Association of Professors of Liturgy has devoted its XXXVIth Week of study to the topic of "liturgy and ecumenism." Its first aim was to renew the consciousness of the role that liturgy had played in the past and is called to play in the ecumenical dialogue still nowadays. This year the week was held at the Monastery of Bose.

PROGRAM

Monday 25 August

4:30 pm

Opening session

5:00 pm

The ecumenical journey and "Sacrosanctum Concilium"
(Emmanuel Lanne, Monastère de Chevetogne)

Tuesday 26 August

9:00 am

The ecumenical conditions for ecumenism
(Silvano Petrosino, Università Cattolica "S. Cuore", Milano)

3:30 pm

The anaphora of Addai and Mari: rethinking the understanding of the sacrament
(Cesare Giraudo S.J., Istituto Orientale, Roma)

5:30 pm

“Starting from liturgy”: between eastern and western traditions
(Thomas Pott, Monastère de Chevetogne)

Wednesday 27 August

9:30 am

The Lima Document (BEM) in the Roman Catholic Church
(Angelo Maffei, Facoltà Teologica dell'Italia settentrionale, Milano)

3:30 pm

XXXVIIth General assembly

4:30 pm

Forum of the Professors. Ecumenism and liturgy

Thursday 28 August

9:30 am

The ecumenical reception of the liturgical reform
(David Holeton, Charles University, Prague)

3:30 pm

The ritual dimension of the worship in the reformed communities
(Ermanno Genre, Waldesian Theological Faculty, Roma)

5:00 pm

Cultural practice between East and West: problems and attempts of solution
(Claudio Gugerotti, Apostolic Nuncio to Georgia, Armenia and Azerbaijan)

Friday 29 August

9:00 am

Liturgy, ecumenical place
(Enzo Bianchi, Prior of the monastic community of Bose)

10:30 am

Conclusions